CASE NO. 2:20-CR-0150-JAM

STIPULATION AND JOINT REQUEST FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER; [PROPOSED]
PROTECTIVE ORDER

17 I. STIPULATION

18 1. Plaintiff United States of America (“government”), by and through its counsel of record, 19 and defendant Ronald Schoenfeld (“defendant”), by and through their respective counsel of record 20 (collectively, the “parties”), for the reasons set forth below, hereby stipulate, agree, and jointly request
21 that the Court enter a Protective Order in this case restricting the use and dissemination of certain 22 materials containing personal identifying information (“PII”) of real persons and other confidential 23 information of victims, witnesses, and third parties.

24 2. On August 21, 2020, the defendant waived indictment on the Information. ECF 5. On 25 August 31, 2020, the defendant pled guilty to conspiracy to commit honest services fraud. ECF 10.

26 3. As part of its investigation in the above-captioned case, the government is in possession 27 of materials relating to the charges against the defendant, including FBI reports and a voluminous 28 amount of emails, that contain PII and other confidential information or real persons, including, among

1 other things, personal names, addresses, Social Security numbers, and dates of birth. These real persons 2 are victims, witnesses, or third parties to this case.

3 4. The government seeks to provide these materials or make such materials accessible to 4 counsel for the defendant. Some of the materials may exceed the scope of the government's discovery 5 obligations and will be produced to promote a prompt and just resolution or trial of the case.

6 5. The purpose of the proposed Protective Order is to prevent the unauthorized 7 dissemination, distribution, or use of materials containing the PII of others. If this information is 8 disclosed without protective measures, or to defendant without limitation, it will risk the privacy and 9 security of the people to whom the information relates. The information could itself be used to further 10 criminal activity if improperly disclosed or used. The United States has ongoing statutory and ethical 11 obligations to protect victims.

12 6. Due to the nature of the charges and the alleged conduct in this case, PII makes up a 13 significant part of the discovery materials, and this information in many instances has evidentiary value 14 itself. The large quantity of privacy-protected information would be difficult or time-consuming to 15 redact. Further, if the government were to attempt to redact all this information, the defense would 16 receive a set of discovery that would be confusing and difficult to understand, and could inhibit prompt 17 and just resolution of the case or preparation for trial.

18 7. Accordingly, the parties jointly request a Protective Order that will permit the 19 government to produce discovery that is unredacted, but preserves the privacy and security of victims, 20 witness, and third parties. The parties agree that the following conditions, if ordered by the Court in the 21 proposed Protective Order, will serve the government's interest in maintaining the privacy and security
22 of victims and third parties, while permitting the Defense Team to understand the United States' 23 evidence against the defendant.

24 8. This Court may enter protective orders pursuant to Rule 16(d) of the Federal Rules of 25 Criminal Procedure, Local Rule 141.1, and its general supervisory authority.

26 II. PROPOSED PROTECTIVE ORDER

27 A. Protected Materials

28 9. This Order pertains to all discovery provided or made available to defense counsel in this case (hereafter, collectively “Protected Materials”).

10. For purposes of the Protective Order, the term “Personal Identifying Information” (“PII”) includes any information within the definition of a “means of identification” under 18 U.S.C. § 1028(d)(7) or any information within the definition of an “access device” under 18 U.S.C. § 1029(e)(1).

11. To the extent that notes are made that memorialize, in whole or in part, the PII in any Protected Materials, or to the extent that copies are made for authorized use by members of the Defense Team, such notes, copies, or reproductions become Protected Materials, subject to the Protective Order and must be handled in accordance with the terms of the Protective Order.

B. Defense Team

12. For purposes of this Order, the term “Defense Counsel” refers to the defendant’s counsel of record.

13. For purposes of this Order, the term “Defense Team” refers to (1) the defendant’s counsel of record, (2) other attorneys at defense counsel’s law firm or defense organization who may be consulted regarding case strategy in the above-captioned matter, (3) defense investigators who are assisting defense counsel with this case, (4) retained experts or potential experts, and (5) paralegals, legal assistants, and other support staff to defendant’s counsel of record providing assistance on this case. The term “Defense Team” does not include defendant, the defendant’s family, or other associates of the defendant.

14. Defense Counsel must provide a copy of this Order to all members of the Defense Team. Defense Counsel must obtain written acknowledgement from members of the Defense Team that they are bound by the terms and conditions of this Protective Order, prior to providing any Protected Materials to the members of the Defense Team. The written acknowledgement need not be disclosed or produced to the United States unless ordered by the Court.

C. Disclosure of Protected Materials

15. The Defense Team shall not permit anyone other than the Defense Team to have possession of the Protected Materials, including the defendant themselves.

16. No person or party shall use any Protected Materials or information derived from Protected Materials produced in this action for any purpose other than use in the above-captioned case.

1 All Protected Materials shall be used solely for the purpose of conducting and preparing for pre-trial, 2 post-trial, and appellate proceedings (both direct and collateral) and in this criminal action for no other 3 purposes whatsoever, and shall not be used for the economic or other benefit of the defendant, or any 4 third party. Protected Materials may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the 5 conditions described in this Order.

6 17. Defendant may review Protected Materials in this case only in the presence of a member
7 of the Defense Team, and his or her Defense Counsel shall ensure that the defendant is never left alone 8 with any Protected Information. Defendant may not copy, keep, maintain, or otherwise possess any of 9 such Protected Materials at any time. Defendant must return any Protected Materials to the Defense
10 Team at the conclusion of any meeting at which defendant reviews the Protected Materials. Defendant
11 may not take any Protected Materials out of the room, physical or virtual, in which they are meeting 12 with the Defense Team. Defendant may not write down or memorialize any PII contained in the 13 Protected Materials. At the conclusion of any meeting with defendant, the member of the Defense Team 14 present shall take with him or her all Protected Materials. At no time, under any circumstances, will any 15 Protected Materials be left in the possession, custody, or control of the defendant, whether or not he or 16 she is incarcerated, except as provided below in Paragraphs 18 and 29.

17 18. If, during the pendency of the case, the defendant requests a copy of the Protected 18 Materials from Defense Counsel, Defense Counsel may provide a copy of the Protected Materials to the 19 defendant provided that Defense Counsel ensures that all PII contained in the Protected Materials is 20 fully redacted and the copy bears the inscription as described in Paragraph 25. If Defense Counsel 21 provides a redacted copy to defendant subject to these conditions, Defense Counsel or a member of the 22 Defense Team must contemporaneously memorialize in writing that it has fully redacted PII from the 23 Protected Materials and complied with this Order. This written certification need not be disclosed or 24 produced to the United States unless ordered by the Court.

25 19. The Defense Team may review Protected Materials with a witness or potential witness in 26 this case, including the defendant, subject to the requirement above that a member of the Defense Team 27 must be present if Protected Materials are being shown to the defendant. Before being shown any 28 portion of the Protected Materials, however, any witness or potential witness must be informed of the

1 existence of the Protective Order and given a copy of the Protective Order. No witness or potential
2 witness may retain Protected Materials, or any copy thereof, after his or her review of those materials
3 with the Defense Team is complete.

4 20. This Order does not limit employees of the United States Attorney's Office for the 5 Eastern District of California from disclosing the Protected Materials to members of the United States
6 Attorney's Office, law enforcement agencies, the Court, and defense.

7 21. Defense Counsel shall advise the United States with reasonable notice of any subpoenas, 8 document requests, or claims for access to the Protected Materials by third parties if Defense Counsel is 9 considering disseminating any of the Protected Materials to a third party, in order that the United States 10 may take action to resist or comply with such demands as it may deem appropriate.

11 D. Ensuring Security of Protected Materials

12 22. The Defense Team shall maintain the Protected Materials safely and securely, and shall 13 exercise reasonable care in ensuring the security and confidentiality of the Protected Materials by storing 14 the Protected Materials in a secure place, such as a locked office, or otherwise secure facility where 15 visitors are not left unescorted.

16 23. A copy of the Protective Order must be stored with the discovery, in paper form and 17 electronically.

18 24. To the extent that Protected Materials, or any copies or reproductions thereof, are stored
19 electronically, the Protected Materials will be stored on a password-protected or encrypted storage
20 medium, including a password-protected computer, or device. Encryption keys must be stored securely 21 and not written on the storage media that they unlock.

22 25. If a member of the Defense Team makes, or causes to be made, any further copies of any 23 of the Protected Materials, Defense Counsel will ensure that the following notation is written, stamped 24 or inscribed on whatever folder, container, or media contains the copies: "PROTECTED MATERIALS-25 SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER." For example, if Defense Counsel makes a copy of a disc or 26 physical file containing Protected Materials, the duplicate disc or file must be encrypted and marked 27 with the above notation.
28

E. Filings

26. In the event that a party needs to file Protected Materials containing PII, or materials otherwise identified as containing confidential information of victims, witnesses, or third parties with the Court, or disclose PII in court filings, the filing should be made under seal as provided for by the local rules. If the Court rejects the request to file such information under seal, the party seeking to file such information shall provide advance written notice to the other party to afford such party an opportunity to object or otherwise respond to such intention. If the other party does not object to the proposed filing, the party seeking to file such information shall redact the PII or confidential materials and make all reasonable attempts to limit the divulging of PII or confidential materials.

F. Conclusion of Prosecution

27. The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this prosecution. All Protected Materials subject to the Protective Order maintained in the Defense Team's files shall remain subject to the Protective Order unless and until such Order is modified by the Court.

28. Upon final disposition of the case, including exhaustion of direct and collateral appellate proceedings, Defense Counsel shall return the Protected Materials to the government, or certify in writing that the Protected Materials have been destroyed. If any Protected Materials are used as defense exhibits, they shall be maintained with government exhibits so long as those are required to be maintained.

29. If, upon final disposition of the case, defendant requests a copy of the Protected Materials from Defense Counsel, Defense Counsel may provide a copy of the Protected Materials to the defendant provided that Defense Counsel ensures that all PII contained in the Protected Materials is fully redacted and the copy bears the inscription as described in Paragraph 25. If Defense Counsel provides a redacted copy to defendant subject to the above conditions, Defense Counsel or a member of the Defense Team must contemporaneously attest in writing that it has fully redacted PII from the Protected Materials and complied with this Order. This written certification need not be disclosed or produced to the United States unless ordered by the Court.

G. Termination or Substitution of Counsel

30. In the event that there is a substitution of counsel prior to final disposition of the case,

1 new counsel of record must join this Protective Order before any Protected Materials may be transferred 2 from the undersigned defense counsel to the new defense counsel. New defense counsel then will 3 become Defense Counsel for purposes of this Protective Order, and become Defense Team's custodian 4 of materials, and shall then become responsible, upon the conclusion of appellate and post-conviction 5 proceedings, for complying with the provisions set forth in Paragraph 29 above. All members of the 6 Defense Team, whether current or past counsel, are at all times subject to the Protective Order and are 7 not relieved by termination of representation or conclusion of the prosecution.

8 H. Modification of Order

9 31. Nothing in this Order shall prevent any party from seeking modification to the Order or 10 from objecting to discovery it otherwise believes to be improper. Nothing in this Order shall prevent any 11 party from seeking a more restrictive protective order with regard to particular discovery items.

12 I. Violation of Order

13 32. Any person who willfully violates this Order may be held in contempt of court and 14 maybe subject to monetary of other sanctions as deemed appropriate by the Court. This provision does 15 not expand or narrow the Court's contempt powers.

16 J. Application of Laws

17 33. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to affect or comment on the admissibility or 18 discoverability of the Protected Materials.
